

2019 Guidelines for Alumni Project Proposals

Proposals should be related to one or more of the following U.S. Embassy Public Diplomacy priorities:

1. Promote opportunity and development: (in relation to youth and women) promote professional skills and leadership development; encourage innovation and entrepreneurship; create networking, mentorship and internship opportunities , HIV/AIDS prevention and healthy lifestyles; present accurate information on transmission, prevention, care, and treatment; reduce stigma; support awareness and dialogue about related issues like LGBTI rights and ending gender-based violence.
2. Strengthen Democratic Institutions: encourage active citizen participation in government; promote increased voter participation in democratic processes at all levels; encourage professional media coverage; and increase attention to minority and disadvantaged populations.
3. Reinforce Mutual Understanding between the United States and Lesotho: present accurate information on the U.S.-Lesotho partnership; build connections with Basotho at all levels; support the promotion of Basotho and American cross-cultural heritage, traditional and modern art forms, and other forms of creative expression; and, foster English language proficiency.

All projects should include plans to share information publically via social or traditional media, hold a public dialogue or networking event at the American Corner in Maseru (located at the State Library), and at a minimum of one location outside of Maseru district to ensure more Basotho have access to public diplomacy programming and grant information.

If you would like to contribute to these goals, please submit your proposal according to the following guidelines:

- All proposals should include information on how the project will develop one of the three above objectives.
- All proposals must arrive within enough time to allow for review.
- The availability of grants funding ranges from $500 to $4,000 and are awarded at the discretion of the U.S. Embassy and subject to the availability of funds.
- Submission of a project proposal does not guarantee funding.
